

Hi All:

Well, we finally got an airfare price so we were able to finalize the price for the cruise. Here is the info:

The dates are Jan.12, 2013 to Jan. 20, 2013

The price will cover the following:

- Flight from Milwaukee to Ft. Lauderdale
- Shuttle from the airport to the hotel
- One night lodging at the Ramada in Ft. Lauderdale
Includes a continental breakfast
- Shuttle to Miami cruise port
- 7 day cruise that includes the Bahamas, St. Thomas, San Juan and Grand Turk
- Shuttle back to Ft. Lauderdale airport
- Flight from Ft. Lauderdale to Milwaukee

The price is $1150 per person and it includes all taxes, port charges, and government fees. We will be flying Southwest so your bag flies free. You are allowed one free bag and two carryons.

Here is a telephone number you need to call:

262-549-0036.

This is the number for Accent on Cruises. I've partnered with them to help make this as enjoyable an experience as possible. Because I've helped to put everything together with them, I know we are at a rock bottom price. The person you want to talk to when you call is JUDY. She will be handling everything from this point forward. If you want to upgrade your cabin, she will be able to handle that for you. I know she will need a down payment to hold the airfare so this is one thing you will be talking to her about. As we get closer to the cruise date, she and I will be taking care of all preboarding activities in order to make the trip run smoothly. You really need to call ASAP as the airfare is going up daily.

If you have any questions regarding the cruise or any other of Chip's Tours trips, please give me a call.

Yo Ho Yo Ho a-cruisin we will go!!!!
